

Brook View School recently took part in their first official dance exam with Allied Dancing Association.

Their examiner commented on how well the students had done, having been working on their 'Grade 1 – Medal and Chain' since September last year.

