

Outcomes: Music Learning

I can read notation from music sheets.

I can play three chords now.

I can play along to music.

I can keep a steady beat on the drums and read drum notation.

I can read minor pentatonic scales.

I can play tunes from a music book.

This term we have been learning how to write drum notation and to play along to music from you tube. The keyboard players are learning to read simple notation from tuition books and are working very hard in their lessons. The young guitar players are learning their minor pentatonic scales.

Quotes:

I love learning to play the drums. I have learned how to read drum music this term.

I can play many tunes on the keyboard.

This term I been learning pentatonic scales on the guitar.

