

Outcomes:

Describe the ground rules for working with others

State what the group is working towards

Identify the tasks that need to be done

Identify your own responsibilities within the group task

Identify who to ask for help when you need it

Carry out activities to meet your responsibilities

Inform an appropriate person of any difficulties in meeting your responsibilities

Identify what went well and less well in your own tasks

Identify what went well and less well in the work of the group

Description of lesson:

The unit for term 1 was 'Working With Others' in which pupils were working as a team to create a board game they would eventually carry out playing. The learning objectives were to completely plan and create all the pieces of the board game, to carry out playing the game and then to evaluate what went well and what didn't go so well.

Quotes:

'Working in a team makes the workload easier.'

'Working together is better than working alone.'

'If we help each other, we can get done quicker.'