

Religion

What is the difference between Catholic and Christianity? That is what the young people were learning about in the religion session.

This was followed by a game of BINGO to see what they have remembered.

Feast of St Andrew

The young people had a wonderful day learning all about St Andrew, the patron St of Scotland, today the young people have explored his story and completed some incredible work to showcase this.

Traditions

Who was St Andrew and where did it all begin, this was the main focus in the tradition session. Young people then took part in a group quiz to see how much they had listened to the story.

FUN FACT!

St Andrew is the patron saint of Scotland, but is not actually Scottish or has been to Scotland.

Quotes:

"Deep fired haggis, I've never heard of that" -LC

"I like this country dancing" - JG2

"BINGO" - Every child shouted at the end of Religion

Art

For Art, the young people listened to the story of who St Andrew was. After this they deduced he was a fisher of men, otherwise known as a fisherman. The young people then created their own fish for a whole school display. They used various different materials to create their own fish. Pictured below are some of the wonderful creations of the fish the young people created.

Cuisine

In the cuisine session, the young people identified different meals that would be considered Scottish. They then planned their own three course meal with pricing.

Dance

Anyone for some country dancing? That is what was on offer for this session. Young people listened to some different country music that Scottish people would traditionally listen to on the 30th November St Andrews Day. They then put their dancing shoes on and danced away.
