

Cambian Northampton School Yearbook

Well, here we are. The end of an era.

It feels like just yesterday you were walking through the doors of Northampton School as fresh-faced Year 7s 8s 9s 10s, and now, somehow, you've made it to the end of Year 11. And what a journey it's been.

I wanted to take a moment to tell you all how proud we are of each and every one of you. You've faced challenges, surprises, ups and downs, and of course those dreaded exams. But through it all, you've shown resilience, character, and a brilliant sense of humour that's made this school a better place to be.

We'll miss the energy you bring to the corridors, the laughs in the classrooms, and the way you've supported each other over the months/years. You've made memories here, and so have we.

As you head off into the big wide world, whether you're off to college, sixth form, apprenticeships, work, or taking a well-earned breather, I want you to carry one thing with you: believe in yourselves. You are capable of more than you realise. Chase your dreams, take chances, and never be afraid to make mistakes. That's how you learn, grow, and discover who you are.

And when (not if), you're rich and famous, or running your own business, or starring on TV, or changing the world in your own unique way, don't forget us at Northampton School. Pop back in, say hello, remind us of your brilliance, and let the next generation see what's possible.

You'll always be a part of this school family, no matter where life takes you. Thank you for the memories, the laughter, and the chaos. You'll be missed more than you know.

Wishing you all the very best for the future - now go out there and make us proud.

Lots of hugs

What a few years it has been. The ups and downs and the laughs and tears you have had. You have all now finished your GCSE's and are ready for your next big journey in college. Super proud of you all, now go and smash it up!

To The Amazing Green Group.

I have so enjoyed working with each and every one of you. You have all made me laugh and I'm going to miss you so much. I know you will all smash your new adventures at college. I'm so proud of you all and what amazing young people you have grown into.

Claire

I'm so proud of each and every one of you! You have all had such an incredible journey, and have all grown so much. Each one of you should be proud of everything you have achieved. It makes me so sad that I won't get to spend my working days with you all, but I'm so excited for you all to start the next chapter of your lives. I wish you all the best in everything you do. Don't get in too much trouble!
