

Remembrance Day - 2025

Dragons, Dolphins and Minnows walked to our local memorial for the 11oclock Remembrance service.

When we got to the memorial the Chairman and the Flight Left Lieutenant introduced themselves to us and admired our wonderful wreaths. Two students had the opportunity to go infront of everybody and lay their wreaths at the Memorial.

Quotes:

Look at all the poppies!

This is very important, isn't it!

Some of my family served in the war!

Flamingos class also observed the two minutes silence when out on their orienteering trip in a local village. The joined the local community when paying their respects.
