

This term we have been learning about wheat to flour, and flour to bread. We have made lots of recipes using flour. For the end of term, the students made their Christmas cakes. A lot of effort into their cakes and made independently. These are our younger age groups from the age 7 to 12. Very proud of them all.

