

Green Class has been using visuals and Makaton in order to communicate likes, dislikes, and requests. In our Independence Lesson, we tasted food from around the world, and rated whether we liked or disliked it, using Green and Blue zones of regulation. We have also been using signs such as 'please', 'more', and 'again' in class and around the school.