

We welcomed our local PCSOs in again today to deliver Stop the Bleed training to all of our pupils. This course empowers bystanders to manage life-threatening bleeding—which can be fatal in just 5 minutes—before emergency services arrive. All pupils engaged well and we are super proud of the respect that was paid to our visitors. Well done Team Tyldesley!

