Miss Holloway Is Leaving Southlands

I have worked at Southlands School for almost 15 years.

Some students remember me as their teacher in primary school.

Some students know me as the Head of Education.

I have enjoyed working with the students and staff at Southlands.

What Is Changing?

On 18 December, the last day of term, I will be leaving Southlands School.

This means that after that date, I will no longer be working at the school.

How Might People Feel?

When someone leaves school, people can have different feelings.

Students might feel:

- Happy for me
- Sad that I am leaving
- Confused about the change
- Worried about what will happen next
- Not bothered by the change

All of these feelings are okay.

Who Will Be the New Head of Education?

Naomi Arthur will be the new Head of Education.

I am happy that Naomi Arthur will be taking on this role.

She will help support students and staff at Southlands.

A Message From Miss Holloway

I am very proud of Southlands School and everything our students achieve.

I have loved being part of the Southlands community.

I will be sad to leave because I have many happy memories here.

I am also excited about my next chapter.

Questions

It is okay to have questions about this change.

Before I leave, students can come and talk to me if they would like to ask a question or share their feelings.

Changes can feel difficult, but there will always be people at Southlands to help and support students. 💔
