

Purbeck View School

Despite the challenges of the year, our Hub base has been busy with students working on our Palletability business. Our new product this year is the seascapes which we will be selling in Reception and the local craft fairs when they are able to reopen.

