

Whilst it wasn't the bank holiday we had planned, we were due to have had a craft stall at the town's VE celebration, we were still able to enjoy VE Day. There was some fantastic fancy dress from the Endeavour/ Spyway bubble, where Winston Churchill and the Queen attended a special afternoon tea. Wavecrest made an impressive Spitfire model and we enjoyed the music played across the town for a 1940s singalong.

Getting ready to celebrate
VE 75

PIC•COLLAGE