

Southlands School Return to SETA

Students at Southlands School were delighted to return to their practical projects at SETA, the Southampton Engineering and Training Association, this half term.

Students have been training with highly skilled professionals to work towards their Level 1 NVQ in Practical Engineering!

