

Scarborough School

Staffing

Patricia Peake - Head Teacher. Tricia has worked for the Scarborough School for over 17 years; as a Teacher, Deputy Head and now as Head. Previously she worked as a Residential Housemother for 10 years working for NCH both in Leeds and Scarborough and has also been self-employed owning her own business for 10 years. Tricia wanted to work in the education sector with SEN children; she worked as a Specialist Teaching Assistant at a local Primary school for six years and completed a 3 year degree course in BA (Hons) Professional studies in Primary Education. Qualifications include: BA (Hons) Professional Studies in Primary Education with English Literature, STA - Specialist Teaching Assistant, Level 4 Management Award.

Michelle Monteith – Teacher, SENCO, Deputy Head. Michelle studied at Lincoln University to complete her BSc (Hons) in Forensic Science and Psychology. After gaining experience working in schools as an Advanced Teaching Assistant she returned to University to complete a PGCE in Secondary Science. Michelle has been with the school for many years and has taught a variety of subjects. Michelle is the appointed SENCO for Scarborough School. Qualifications include: BSc (Hons) Forensic Science and Psychology, PGCE Secondary Science.

Michelle Goodwin – Teacher, Exams Officer, Deputy Head. Michelle has worked with the company for over 16 years teaching a variety of subjects but specialising in Mathematics to GCSE level. She jointly runs the Duke of Edinburgh Award scheme at Bronze level and plans and organises team building activities for the whole school to encourage group participation. Michelle is also the school Examination Officer and is responsible for assessments in general throughout the key stages. Qualifications include: BSc (Hons) Maths with QTS.

Harley Botham – Teacher. Harley completed her undergraduate degree whilst working here at Scarborough School, first as a 1:1 Learning Support Assistant and later as the school's Pastoral Lead. Harley left to complete her initial teacher training and has now returned as a teacher specialising in Humanities and Languages. Harley's qualifications include: BA (Hons) Arts and Humanities (Spanish and History) and PGCE Level 7 in Secondary Spanish with QTS. Harley spends her free time playing the double bass, throwing axes and enjoys travelling with her partner and dog.

Sophie Martin – Teacher. Sophie joined us in January 2020 and primarily teaches English. She came to us from another local school where she was teaching classes with a high rate of Pupil Premium, special educational needs and disabilities as well as pupils with English as an additional language. Sophie initially trained at the Royal Military School of Music in Twickenham and spent 12 years as a musician and regular soldier in the army. Sophie left the forces in 2014 to pursue a career in education and, after working as an Advanced Teaching Assistant, she went on to complete teacher training with Brighton University gaining her BA (Hons) in Secondary Education (English). She has taught English at several secondary schools across North Yorkshire and the East Riding.

Kelly Murphy - Instructor. Kelly has worked for the Scarborough School for many years, firstly as a Learning Support Assistant and now as an Instructor. Kelly previously worked in early years at a local primary school before joining the team here. Qualifications include: NVQ STALIS - Supporting Teaching and Learning in Schools, Intermediate Health and Social Care, Advanced Health and Social Care, Nursery Nursing.

Paul Mathers – Instructor. Paul originally joined the team as a Learning Support Assistant. More recently Paul was promoted to Instructor and specialises in Physical Education, Problem Solving and Team Building as well as supporting a variety of other classes. Qualifications include: Teaching Instructor for Army Cadets, Duke of Edinburgh Awards in Bronze, Silver and Gold.

Jo Suarez - Instructor. Jo originally joined the team as a Learning Support Assistant. Jo is a qualified teacher and has worked for many years in primary and secondary schools specialising in educational settings with children with special educational needs including autism. Recently, when a vacancy arose Jo was promoted to Instructor and teaches some of our classes in school including Art.

Andrew Marshall – Pastoral Lead. Andy is our Pastoral Lead here at Scarborough School. Andrew has a huge wealth of knowledge and experience having previously qualified as a Social Worker and worked as a Safeguarding Officer in his most recent role at East Riding College. Andrew spent 18 years of his career working as a Police Officer for the Lincolnshire Police Authority and was the force champion for restorative justice and neighbourhood policing.

Hayley Miller – Learning Support Assistant. Hayley, who had been working as a 1:1 Learning Support Assistant with a child who needed extra support in school, has now been given a permanent role in school as a general Learning Support Assistant. Hayley had previously worked for many years in a care home setting, but is also a qualified hairdresser.

Nicole Wheeler – Learning Support Assistant. Nicole is our new Learning Support Assistant, who just joined the team in January 2023. Nicole is currently studying psychology – which is a study of mind and behaviour.

Vanessa Moore - Administrator. Vanessa has been our part-time administrator for over seven years now, she has worked in admin and finance roles since leaving school and worked in a Children's Centre prior to joining us here. Vanessa's qualifications include: Advanced G.N.V.Q in Business Studies, AAT - Accountancy.