Context of the School:

Hill House School opened in September 1992 and provides education and care for young people with severe learning difficulties and challenging behaviour. The majority of young people are on the Autism Spectrum Condition (ASC) and present with severe learning difficulties. The school provides for up to 30 young people aged 11-19 years

The school is also a registered children's home

Hill House is situated in the heart of the New Forest in Hampshire with easy access to the forest, local beaches, towns and two major cities

Hill House has high expectations for young people's behaviour and achievement. The staff team work successfully in supporting the young people to develop personally and academically, enabling them to take their place as independent, active citizens.

Hill House offers a high-quality curriculum which enables the young people to build their knowledge in many subjects. The planned curriculum incorporates the young people's education, health and care (EHC) plans providing opportunities for them to achieve their own personal EHC outcomes. The curriculum is enriched through the provision of a rich and varied range of experiences, on and off site, in order to prepare the young people for the next stage of their education or employment.

Spiritual, moral, social and cultural development, including the promotion of fundamental British values, is developed through a wide range of activities including trips to the Houses of Parliament, democratic voting opportunities, and reflection on historic events of national importance e.g. the Queen's Platinum Jubilee.

Leaders and staff use highly effective assessment procedures to identify the stage the young person is working at so that future learning is planned to meet their needs. Staff from education, care and therapy work seamlessly to ensure young people make strong progress from when they start at the school.

Leaders and managers follow robust processes of self-evaluation and external monitoring through regular governance meetings and the school's own 'Professional Learning Community (PLC) who provide a balance of high support and high challenge. This, together with robust and regular training and development of the workforce, as well as professional curiosity, enables Hill House to self-reflect and move forward.

Leaders have created a highly effective safeguarding culture and Hill House works hard to provide an open culture, which actively promotes all young people's welfare.

Leaders have established positive partnerships with a range of other provisions, such as Southampton University and Priors Court, offering opportunities for collaborative work and the sharing of expertise. These links enable Hill House to continue to move forward and to develop outstanding practice.

Leaders and managers know the school well. They have a clear vision of how they want the school to develop, and are ambitious at wanting to achieve this aim. Leaders and managers have created a culture of high expectations and aspirations within which young people achieve well. They are proud that they have created a collaborative approach to developing the school, involving young people, staff, parents and stakeholders.

Hill House is a 'One Planet Living' and Eco Schools site which reflects the improvements all stakeholders have achieved in taking actions to look after the planet and sustainability.

Previous inspection judgements:

Headline statements from previous inspection findings:

- Pupils lives are transformed by attending this school
- Leader's high ambitions drive every element of the school's work
- Staff focus constantly on preparing pupils for adulthood. As a result, pupils' personal, social and communication skills develop significantly. This supports pupils to move on towards successful future lives
- Carefully planned routines settle pupils quickly into the school. This helps them to access meaningful learning
- Pupils engage enthusiastically with the rich range of life experiences that leaders open up for them, both in and out of school. These enable pupils to practise vital skills such as communication and co operation
- In the school café, pupils queue up patiently, make healthy choices for lunch and enjoy eating lunch alongside the adults who care for them. This is just one example of how pupils learn to manage their behaviours and interactions with others
- Hill House is a safe and caring place to be
- Leaders and staff understand pupils' complex needs extremely well
- Education, care and therapy staff work seamlessly together. Their thoughtful work keeps pupils' wishes, views and needs constantly in mind. Consequently, pupils thrive
- Over time, leaders have sustained high standards of education and care at Hill House
- The team strive to provide for pupil's specific needs, seizing every opportunity for pupils to develop
- Learning is an integral part of everything that happens, so that pupils gain maximum benefit from being at the school
- The curriculum supports pupils extremely well. It helps them to develop highly relevant knowledge, skills and attributes to enhance their future lives. Leaders have thought very carefully about how to do this in an accessible and ambitious way
- Learning enables pupils to achieve goals well beyond those in their education, health and care plans
- Leaders' work to support pupils' behavioural development begins long before they join the school...over time, pupils become increasingly effective at managing their own emotions
- Language and communication are at the heart of the school's curriculum
- The sixth form provides a highly effective transition for pupils as they move from the lower school towards leaving the school
- Leaders have a deep understanding of pupil's potential vulnerabilities and take their responsibility to keep pupils safe extremely seriously

Quality of Education

Judgement:	Outstanding
Evidence that supports this judgement:
“The curriculum supports students extremely well, it helps them to develop highly relevant knowledge, skills and attributes to enhance their future lives.” OFSTED JANUARY 2020
Our Students Often students will have had a difficult time in education before coming to Hill House. Many will have had barriers to engaging with the curriculum and learning. They may have been segregated from some activities and from other young people and often excluded from school altogether. For most of our students prior to coming to Hill House school their experience and enjoyment of the world around them had become very limited. Our students are in need of a curriculum that recognises their strengths and potential in which progress is measured in wider developmental outcomes. Students can often feel isolated and disengaged with learning before coming to Hill House and after entering the school they begin to feel as if they belong and that the curriculum is right for them.
Our Curriculum Intent Hill House School we have developed an ambitious and meaningful curriculum. It is a curriculum that ensures our students are able to engage in and enjoy a broad and rich experience of linguistic, mathematical, scientific, technological, human and social, physical, aesthetic and creative education. It is a curriculum that has been designed to be appropriate to their needs and takes into account the ages, aptitudes and the various barriers to learning that of all our students face. As a curriculum that enables our students to acquire communication, self-regulation, listening, literacy and numeracy skills which prepares them academically, socially and emotionally for the opportunities for their next steps into adult life.
Our Expectations By the end of their Curriculum Journey at Hill House School we expect our Students to be able to explore, learn develop and generalise knowledge and skills in the following Key Areas;
Communication <ul style="list-style-type: none">• From their starting points our students will have developed their ability to communicate needs, helping them to make choices, make decisions and choose options that other people act on and listen to.• Our students will feel more confident and skilled with their ability to communicate, empowering them and ensuring their positive well-being and self-esteem.• As a result of engaging in this curriculum our students will have developed a sense of autonomy and freedom.
Self-Regulation <ul style="list-style-type: none">• From their starting points our students will demonstrate an awareness, understanding and respect for their environment and of the world around them.• Our students will have experienced success and have increased self-esteem and self-advocacy• Our students will be able to use a range of systems of supported advocacy and will develop an awareness of self and sensitivity to others• Our students will manifest attitudes and behaviours that demonstrate knowledge and understanding of British Values and what it means to be a good citizen of the planet.

Resilience

- From their starting points our students will make the small steps and giant steps of progress in order to realise their EHCP outcomes
- Our students will be able to engage with a formal curriculum and they will appreciate that this has a meaning and purpose for them
- Our students will have developed the knowledge and skills so that they are able to take risks with their learning, accepting and learning from mistakes and being prepared to try something new.
- Our students will be able to achieve and participate in learning experiences that result in external nationally recognized accreditations

Increasing independence

- From their starting points our students will have developed a range of skills towards independence which best equips them to be able to live in modern Britain.
- Our students with the knowledge and skills appropriate for them which helps to build their cultural capital so they are prepared and equipped for the next steps into adulthood.
- Our students will have experienced and responded positively to a journey full of memorable and enjoyable learning experiences
- Our students will have participated in a curriculum that celebrates and shares success and achievement both for themselves and for others
- Our students will have developed their own understanding of autonomy whilst appreciating the relationships of their friends and the adults around them
- Our students will show confidence and ease when out and about and from starting points will have increased their access to the community and wider engagement in society.
- Most if not all our students will have experienced the world of work through both on site and off site experiences.

Discovery

- From their starting point we will expect that our students will have developed a love of learning leading to them being able to acquire, develop, practise, apply and extend their skills in a range of contexts across the curriculum
- We expect that our students will become confident, independent learners that encounter, engage and explore
- We expect that all of our students will participate in exciting learning experiences, opening minds, broadening their experience of already existing preferences and choices whilst developing new passions, hobbies and interests.
- We expect that our students to have had exposure to and to have learnt from the best that has been thought and said
- We expect that our students will have had the opportunity to experience feelings of awe and wonder developing their curiosity and feelings of responsibility.
- All our students will have consistently and regularly participated in learning experiences that promote their spiritual, moral, cultural, mental and physical development.

How is this achieved?

- The Hill House curriculum is designed to meet the learning needs of our students and supports them to develop the key skills and knowledge necessary for them to enjoy and achieve
- We offer a holistic approach where learning takes place across the whole school site and throughout the entirety of the day, both in normal school hours and also beyond these working school hours.
- Students at Hill House rarely begin their journey with us at the start of the normal academic year. Students will begin their curriculum journey from different starting points and many will have had significant issues with access to their previous curriculums. Baseline assessment is essential and 3 month Multi-Disciplinary assessment of knowledge, skills, aptitudes and barriers to learning is undertaken on entry to the school.

- From this baseline assessment we can begin to set meaningful targets for our students in line with our curriculum expectations
- IEPs. Each student has a range of IEP targets linked to their overall EHCP Outcomes and our Curriculum Expectations. These targets fall under the following areas;

Cognition and Learning – these include the academic and learning targets across the Lower School and 6th Form Curriculum

Communication and Interaction

Social, Emotional aspects of learning

Physical, Sensory and Personal Development

Preparation for Adulthood

- These targets are recorded termly on the students IEP which can be found in their Master Care Plan. Each of the IEP targets are set and reviewed on a termly basis.
- A student will have a termly IEP review meeting attended by the multi-disciplinary team and also the student where appropriate. At these meetings the team are able to determine whether a student has made above expected progress towards their target, expected, or below expected progress, discussions will be had as to how to build upon these targets or whether the target should be on-going.
- The team are also able to look at factors that may have affected the success rate. Through termly analysis we are also able to reflect on the quality and suitability of targets which then informs future target setting
- The targets for the small steps of progress across the curriculum and which are recorded in the students' IEP's are informed by the Hill House School Assessment Framework.
- Teachers will use formative assessment daily to monitor progress and to revise or adjust these targets as necessary.
- Each student has a 'Learning Journey' which captures the curriculum progress journey that they have been on since they arrived at Hill House. The Learning Journeys indicate the barriers to learning faced by the students at the beginning of their journey, the progress made along the way and the goals and learning aspirations for the future.
- The curriculum programmes of learning are designed so that subject based topics of study provide learning experiences which facilitate progress towards our wider curriculum expectations and the Students EHCP Outcomes.
- It is structured in such a way as to take into consideration Cognitive Load Theory; recognising that the sequencing of that development needs to take into account the role of memory when helping our students to build the cognitive architecture required to access the whole curriculum effectively.
- As working memory is limited, we sequence our curriculum to reduce that load by drawing on prior knowledge and logically sequencing episodes of learning so that they accumulate small steps of progress towards their Curriculum goals and EHCP Outcomes thereby securing understanding at one stage before moving on to the next. Through this, they are able to achieve the high expectations and the intent of our curriculum as whole.
- In KS3 and 4, literacy, numeracy, PSHE/RSE, science, thematic learning (including the arts and Humanities), MFL and Physical Education are given designated timeslots in the timetable.
- Each academic year is divided into 5 'Terms' of study, each lasting 8 weeks. Students at Hill House access formalised learning for 41 weeks p/a, enabling the 5 terms of study and an additional week to cover assessments, off site activities and whole school events such as Careers Week, celebrations and Special Days
- In the sixth form we offer a distinct curriculum for our older students and this provides a progression from the lower school into a more grown up environment where students will continue to develop their independence and vocational skills

- This post 16 curriculum continues to build on the core skills of Literacy and Numeracy which along with PSHE/RSE have dedicated time in the college timetable. The college also provides the students with an opportunity to develop their Life and Living Skills, Land Science and Animal Care, Expressive Arts and an understanding of the world of work, and work related learning all of which are preparation for next steps into adulthood.
- The post 16 curriculum leads to the students being able to realise and achieve nationally and internationally recognized accreditations e.g. OCR Life and Living Skills Award ,the John Muir and Duke of Edinburgh Awards.
- The post 16 students are supported to and encouraged to communicate their preferred areas of study alongside the core subjects.
- The Individual subjects are adapted to take into account of the needs and starting points of our learners and the tasks and activities are differentiated to enable all to make progress

Progress and Attainment of IEP Targets 2021/2022

Below Expected Progress

Communication and Interaction	100%	67%(16)	33%(8)	0%
Social & Emotional	96%	50%(12)	46%(11)	4%(1)
Physical and Sensory Personal Development	91%	58%(14)	33%(8)	9%(2)

2021 – 2022 Progress Report – termly targets working towards EHCP outcomes;

- All students made outstanding progress towards realising their EHCP Outcomes, achieving their IEP targets across the curriculum and areas of need
- The students continued to make excellent progress with, and achieve their academic goals in line with their Cognition and Learning Outcomes and all the students made expected or above expected progress across the year towards their Cognition and Learning EHCP Outcomes

- The cognition and Learning outcomes include progress in Literacy, Numeracy and PSHE/RSE
- 100% students made expected or accelerated progress in Reading and Literacy
- 100% students made expected or above expected progress in Numeracy
- 100% students made expected or above expected progress in PSHE/RSE – This area of learning and development is one of the “golden threads” running throughout our whole school and college curriculum. The targets set for PSHE/RSE compliment and work alongside those set for Social and Emotional development
- The student outcomes for Communication and Interaction continued to be outstanding in 2021/22. The use of Talk Pads to support curriculum learning and communication has become embedded in the school and college implementation of this curriculum. The students are now supported to reach their learning targets in communication and Interaction with an assessment framework of “Talk Pad - I Can” targets
- The progress towards Social and Emotional Outcomes continues to be strong. The majority of the targets in this area are related to the student’s further knowledge and understanding of the use of the ‘Zones of Regulation’. The students continued to build upon their knowledge, understanding and application of the Zones with twice daily sessions led by the teacher and supported by the OT and Assistant Psychologist. The language of the Zones and its application are firmly embedded within the curriculum. The evidence from the student’s learning journeys show that this approach and our students’ ability to self-regulate and choose “clever actions” has been an important factor in enabling our students to be in the optimum “green” zone for learning and has allowed such significant progress for them across the curriculum
- The Thematic Learning curriculum continues to be an area of strength in the lower school and the achievements and progress of the students continues to validate this approach. The delivery of the Arts, Humanities and D&T are unified by a single theme. This approach inspires the teachers to deliver enjoyable and memorable learning experiences. Student levels of engagement and understanding were high and they were able to achieve their individual targets across these subject areas.

Accreditation Outcomes overview 2022

- Accreditation in the curriculum over the past two years has focused upon the students developing their e-portfolios of evidence for their OCR Life and Living Skills Introductory award
- The OCR award offers a flexible yet more comprehensive approach to accreditation for our 6th form students. It is an approach which enables us to bank evidence of skills and knowledge the students have learnt over time
- Dependent on how much evidence each student has against the Life and Living skills framework means we are able to enter the student for the Introductory or Entry Level award when they reach the end of their 6th form curriculum
- This year in Life and Living Skills, the young people have focussed on the environment and community and personal skills
- The young people have accessed the OCR learning in many ways, such as work experience in the on-site café and work experience offsite at a local school’s walled gardens
- The subjects covered were recognising community, identifying local community and facilities and my rights and responsibilities, everybody matters
- Seven of our young people have been accredited this year at the Introductory Level and have received their certification from OCR. For 2022-23 we envisage entering a number of our 6th form students at both the introductory and entry level
- For context the achievement of the OCR Life and living skills award would be the equivalent to a significant accumulation of individual AQA unit awards
- We have continued to use AQA unit awards to support accreditation in other areas of the curriculum, the focus this year having been our ECO schools award
- We will continue to use the AQA unit awards to support accreditation for targeted areas of our curriculum and our planning to develop further accreditation opportunities over the next Academic year

`The sixth form provides a highly effective transition for students as they move from the lower school towards leaving the school...The relevant qualifications that students gain give them vital currency when exploring options for their future` OFSTED January 2020

- Hill House offers a distinct sixth form curriculum. This provides progression from the lower school into a more grown up environment where students are supported to develop their independence and vocational skills even further
- Throughout the education week, students travel through three main pathways; Core Academic; Passport to adulthood Life Skills, Careers and Work - Related Learning; Arts and Humanities
- Hill House has high expectations for achievement and progress in the sixth form and stretches its young people
- All students have the opportunity to develop their skills, knowledge and understanding through access to our careers programme
- Students learn about the world of work and have the opportunity to participate in on-site and off-site work experience
- Each sixth form student works towards achieving accreditation from the OCR `Life and Living Skills` award which they can take with them into adult life
- The impact of the Hill House sixth form curriculum is strong. This is demonstrated in the progress that our sixth formers continue to make and is also evidenced within our destination information

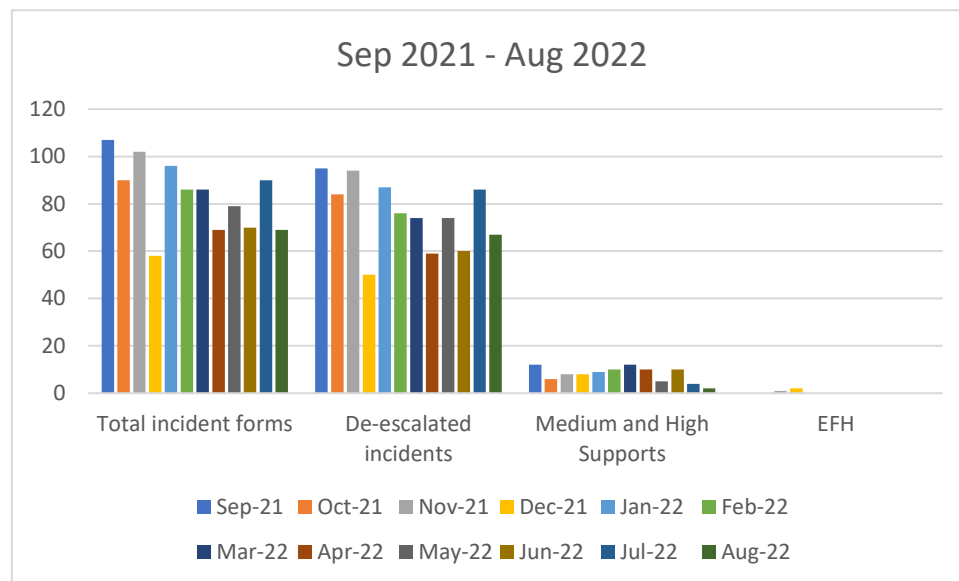

COVID 19

- COVID-19 is an ongoing reality and leaders and staff adapt to any changes that are needed. This includes offering a range of learning opportunities
- The home-based curriculum has been effective in enabling our students to maintain their access to high quality teaching and learning through a broad and balanced curriculum
- Where day students are working from home, a programme of daily live lessons led by a class teacher has been provided for these students. These live lessons are supported by a programme of independent work focused on the achievement of AQA unit awards
- It is a planned and well-sequenced curriculum so that knowledge and skills are built incrementally. The remote curriculum is designed to support the students with their progress towards their EHCP outcomes regardless of location

Behaviour and Attitudes

Judgement:	Outstanding
Evidence that supports this judgement:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Hill House provides a positive, safe and calm environment which enables young people to feel safe and happy and able to engage and learn. Attendance and punctuality are outstanding Through positive relationships, staff model respect so that students build respect and positive attitudes to each other and adults. Young people learn how to stay safe through the preventative curriculum, including learning about healthy relationships and sex education. Young people are extremely well supported in all aspects of their life but not so much as to stifle managed risk taking which encourages learning and individual development All young people have an individual behaviour plan, an individual risk assessment and E-Safety risk assessment. Plans are focussed on the use of positive, proactive strategies with the goal of self – management to enable development of talents and interests A range of strategies support young people to recognise and understand their emotions and access `clever actions` to enable them to feel calm, happy and safe. These include; TalkPads, Use of the `Zones of Regulation` and reflection sessions Individual plans such as sensory diets are implemented and embedded throughout the day. This enables young people to feel in a `just right` place Our Green Room offers opportunities for Nurture sessions Hill House has its own Behaviour support Team (BST) who ensure consistency of implementation of agreed interventions, reflection and review as needed Hill House has its own multi-disciplinary (MDT) therapy team including; Speech and Language Therapist, Occupational Therapist, Assistant Psychologist, Clinical Psychologist, Clinical Psychiatrist and Music Therapist who work in an integrated model with education and care colleagues to deliver a holistic therapeutic approach Hill House has a health care manager to oversee and co-ordinate all health care needs Hill House has a wellbeing practitioner who champions well-being at every level and promotes the OPL principle of Health and Happiness The teams work closely with all staff and young people to promote positive behaviour and to ensure that everyone feels safe The Behaviour Support Team, Wellbeing Practitioner and MDT staff are integrated and direction is planned through joined up service development The senior leadership team meets every morning to read through all incident forms. This enables close scrutiny of events and any actions to be completed within a 24hr timescale A representative from each discipline meets every Monday morning to discuss each student as part of the weekly risk meeting. A RAG rating is used to identify any young people who may require further discussion within a strategy meeting or any young person who may need some additional support that week The Behaviour Support Team meet with staff on a regular basis to offer time for a debrief session to reflect and learn from situations Young people adopt healthy lifestyles that are promoted on a daily basis through the Hill House café Hill House has a robust anti-bullying and behaviour policy and students take part in regular lessons and whole school activities such as Anti-bullying week Young people at Hill House have a voice and are consulted about developments within the school on a regular basis. They take part in `get together` times and are supported to make a range of choices about their life Hill House has been part of the `100 voices` project with SMARTBOX where young people at Hill House have been given their own Talk Pad device in order to support their communication needs Students have direct access to the Hill House Childrens Guide on their Talk Pads

- Live data is used to inform behaviour management and support plans through evidence-based reflection and review

Personal Development

Judgement:	Outstanding
Evidence that supports this judgement:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Hill House promotes confidence, resilience and self – esteem in the young people The Hill House curriculum and ethos teaches young people to engage within their community and develop a sense of respect The Hill House curriculum offers a rich variety of experiences both at the school and out in the community such as whole school music, drama and dance activities The staff at Hill House work as one team with the education, care and therapy team working within a seamless approach Young people are supported to learn how to stay healthy and all students have an individual E-Safety risk assessment to help them to stay safe on line and when using technology The Hill House Wellbeing Practitioner works with the whole school community to support everyone to be safe, healthy and happy Hill House uses the `One Planet Living` framework comprising of 10 intuitive principles:  The image shows the 10 principles of the One Planet Living framework, each with an icon and a text label in a colored box: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Health and happiness (smiley face icon) Equity and local economy (handshake icon) Culture and community (group of people icon) Land and nature (leaf and tree icon) Sustainable water (water drop icon) Local and sustainable food (apple icon) Travel and transport (bicycle icon) Materials and products (factory icon) Zero waste (recycling symbol icon) Zero carbon energy (solar panel icon)  <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Hill House adopts these principles and works towards an on – going action plan based on `Everyone at HHS to be leading happy, healthy lives within the natural limits of our one planet` Hill House has been awarded the Eco Schools Award with distinction
SMSC <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The school's thoughtful and wide-ranging promotion of spiritual, moral, social and cultural development and their physical wellbeing enables young people to thrive in a supportive, highly cohesive learning community. It helps them to adopt knowledge and respect A wealth of SMSC opportunities and experiences are on offer throughout each academic year. All young people are encouraged and supported to take part and these also include MFL lessons. Young people learn social skills and cultural development SMSC offers a creative and imaginative approach to learning, enabling young people to learn about themselves and others from around the world. Our curriculum in the school and college encourages learner creativity and provides experiences that allow them a sense of awe and wonder
British Values <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Cultural Capital is embedded in the life of the school The provision of SMSC actively promotes the fundamental British values of democracy, the rule of law and individual liberty. It provides young people with the opportunity to explore values and beliefs, including religious beliefs and the way in which they impact on people's lives. It encourages tolerance and harmony between different cultural traditions as well as mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs Hill House works towards preparing students for life in modern Britain SMSC at Hill House enables young people to learn about right from wrong and to respect the civil and criminal law of England

- SMSC provision enables young people to acquire a broad general knowledge of and respect for public institutions and services in England. Young people have the opportunity to visit a range of places including the Houses of Parliament, local museums and libraries and attend events such as local services
- Young people take part in regular 'get together' times where they have the opportunity to have a voice and vote on issues that impact them and make choices about their everyday life
- Young people are encouraged to take part in a variety of charity events and make a regular contribution to the local community
- Individually planned trips cater for specific cultural or religious needs such as a trip to the mosque
- Hill House hold an annual careers week where everyone can learn and experience the world of work

RSE

- Hill House is committed to supporting student's personal and social development by helping them to develop the skills and understanding they need to live confident, safe, healthy and independent lives
- Underpinning the PSHE / RSE curriculum is the school's ethos which gives a high priority to positive relationships between all members of the community
- The school treats all students as individuals, recognising and respecting individual needs, interests and abilities
- RSE is delivered as part of the wider PSHE curriculum and elements of RSE are embedded across curriculum areas
- We recognise the individual levels both cognitively and developmentally and address this individually through young people having their own RSE plan where required
- The plans are reviewed termly during the outcomes meetings and are shared with parents, social workers and other appropriate external bodies during student reviews
- Peer Supervision of the RSE plans and programmes of study take place with partner schools in order to share practice and offer peer review

Leadership and Management

Judgement:	Outstanding
Evidence that supports this judgement:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Hill House has a strong safeguarding ethos based on a whole school approach that allows all students to be kept safe The school's policies and procedures for safeguarding young people are robust and exceed statutory requirements. The school protects students from radicalisation and extremism We treat child – on – child abuse very seriously and recognise this as a form of abuse We have a distinct training video 'In conversation with...' based on what child on child abuse and sexual violence and harassment between children might look like at HHS We have a clear Pathway response to any cases of child on child abuse Hill House identifies any risk of harm quickly and all allegations are managed in a timely and effective way At Hill House we take all concerns seriously and have detailed 'Low Level concern' guidance and procedures Safer Recruitment is managed with utmost importance and Hill House use a high level of scrutiny, always remembering that 'It could happen here' The Designated Safeguarding Team work hard to ensure that safeguarding is fully embedded in the life of the school and ensures that all staff understand their responsibilities under 'Keeping Children Safe in Education' as evidenced in the Workforce Development Plan and MYRUS online training platform The Designated Safeguarding Lead sends out a weekly safeguarding email to all staff asking them a specific safeguarding question, highlighting a safeguarding issue or sharing a piece of safeguarding news with the team We have a specific safeguarding drive on the school network where safeguarding resources can be accessed by all staff All young people have a safeguarding and individual E-Safety Risk Assessment We recognise that governors have a strategic leadership responsibility for their school's safeguarding arrangements and work closely with governors and our Professional Learning Community who carry out regular safeguarding audits All leaders, including governors have a clear and highly ambitious vision for providing high quality education to all young people. This is reinforced through strong, shared values, policies and practices that are regularly monitored and reviewed through the ISS framework Senior staff lead by example and have high expectations School leaders and managers have an uncompromising drive to improve achievement and outcomes for all students irrespective of their ability and challenges School leaders and managers have a deep and accurate understanding of young people, staff and the school's performance in all areas Staff engagement is very important at Hill House, leaders engage with staff through a range of methods in order to listen to and involve them in the development of the school. This includes the school staff 'Focus Group' who meet regularly to work on key development areas. Regularly scheduled supervision and appraisal supports all staff to reflect and develop Hill House also engage with parents and stakeholders in order to also gain their views, which have been beneficial in terms of improving communication and information sharing e.g. postcards home and newsletters School leaders implement and drive new and dynamic initiatives such as One Planet Living, Eco Schools, Talk Pads, Let's Eat Café, outdoor learning. Hill House implements a staff training programme that enables teachers and teaching assistants to improve their knowledge and enhance the teaching of the curriculum. A rich programme of CPD is highly effective in developing the school Rigorous self-evaluation and performance management ensures outstanding outcomes Robust action planning ensures well informed strategies are in place in order to develop the school

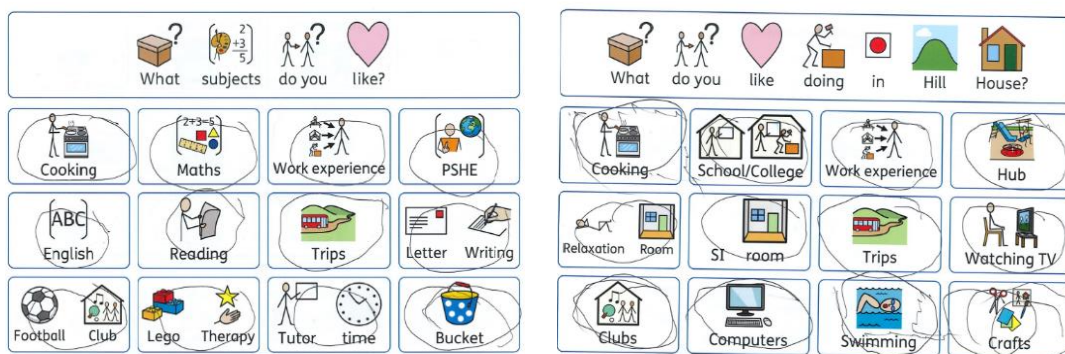

- The school offers placements for trainee teachers
- Termly governance board meetings are held at Hill House to ensure that the management of the school is closely scrutinised and held to account in all areas of responsibility
- The Hill House PLC - 'Professional Learning Community' also provides a balance of high support and high challenge, accountability and a focus on outcomes. The PLC brings an external perspective to the school and helps the school to set stretching targets
- This governance enables Hill House to have clarity of vision, ethos and strategic direction
- At Hill House we are outward facing and have links with a number of schools outside of the group as well as with other external providers and establishments
- Being part of a greater network prevents isolation and enables Hill House to share outstanding practice. It also enables the Hill House team to make professional connections with other people and to develop skills and knowledge from collaborative working opportunities
- Hill House work closely with Southampton University and are members of the ACoRNS group - 'Autism Community Research Network @ Southampton'
- This work has also led to the development of individual 'I am' digital stories for young people to support the process of moving to their new home
- Hill House work closely with Southampton university and also with Wildern Partnership SCITT programme and the School Direct Programme in order to host teacher training placements
- The Hill House induction package is shared with external providers e.g. part of the SCITT teacher training CPD programme
- Hill House are members of the Roche Court Arts Centre Teachers Advisory Panel
- Hill House work closely with another outstanding education provider where education leads complete peer audits and offer opportunities for teachers in both settings to work alongside each other
- The Responsible Individual attends peer supervision forums

'We so enjoyed coming to Hill House and seeing what a peaceful, purposeful and happy place it is. It is hard to put into words what seeing round the school meant to us'

(Parent feedback following a visit to HHS)

'I really want to thank you and Hill House for your welcome and kindness as we've worked together over the years. Your caring, professionalism, willingness to undertake anything to make lives better for young people we support, has made my work easier because we've managed challenges together'

(Social worker)

'Thank you for all your support, passion and for all the opportunities you have given me to learn and develop in my role.... I have learnt so much'

(Member of the therapy team)

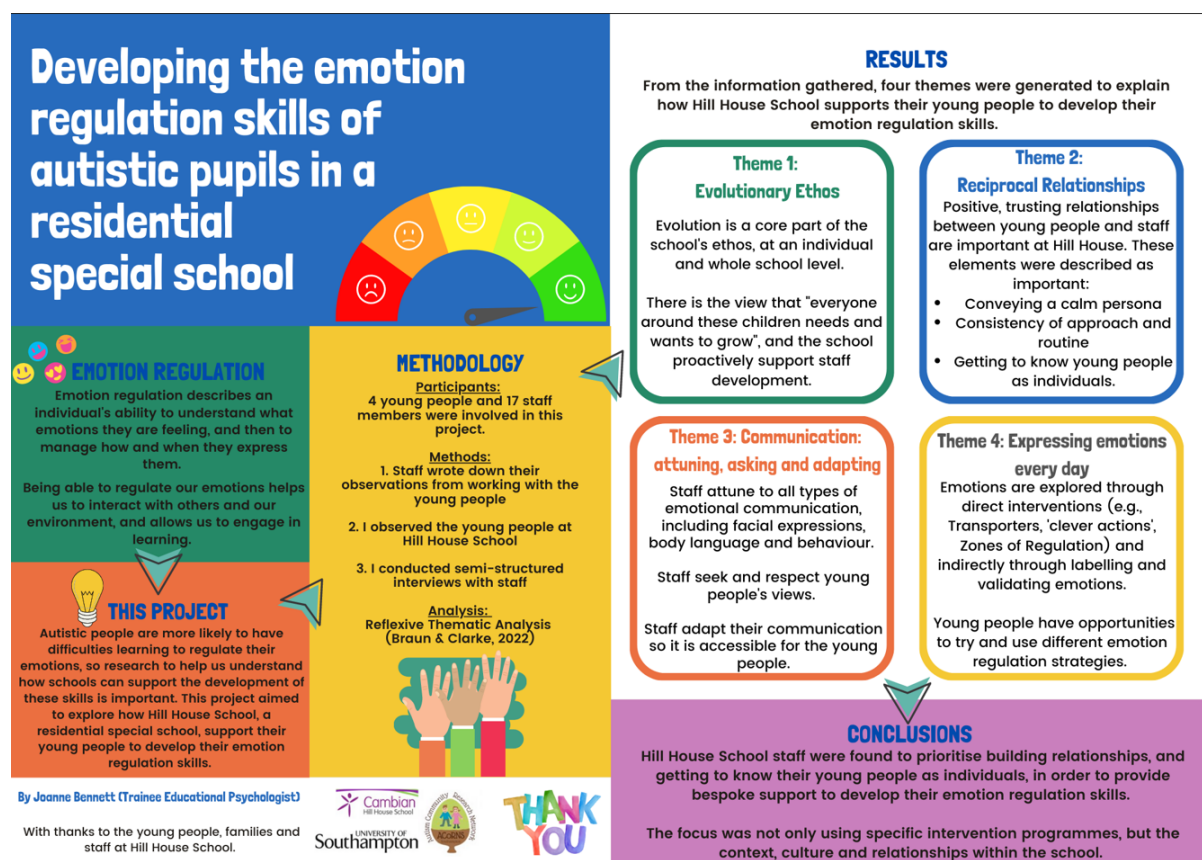

'Thank you for all your hard work and dedication this year! We asked A "what is the best part of the week?" and he replied "school" without hesitation!'

(Parent)

'Thank you for such a wonderful day on Wednesday, we all had a lovely time and it was great to see H with his friends. He is so happy at Hill House and it really shows. Thank you for giving H such a lovely environment to live in and lovely people to look after him. We are very grateful to all of you'

(Parent feedback following celebration day)

'It was an absolute pleasure to assess your application. Please pass on our massive congratulations to the whole school, your school is a real worthy winner of the Eco Schools Green Flag award with Distinction'
