Description of trip: This week Flamingo's visited the gardens at Oxborough Hall. It has turned cold this month, so we wrapped up warm in our Forest School gear all set to explore Oxborough Hall. The Hall was beautiful and wherever we were exploring we had great views of Oxborough Hall. We first ate our lunch on the picnic benches and saw the tree with the inside scooped out. You could actually sit in it. The main task was to climb a tree and we sure did that, several times. We enjoyed all being in the tree together and challenging ourselves to move around the tree. We then went for a nature walk and found a den to hide in. We walked along the side of the stream and many of us wanted to go for a paddle, but it was too cold. It was a great day, but we enjoyed getting back in a lovely warm van and taking off our muddy overalls.

Quotes:

"You can't climb that tree"

"I love climbing trees!!!"

"Can we go for a paddle?"
