1. Monitoring and Review

- 1.1. The Proprietor will undertake a formal review of this policy for the purpose of monitoring and of the efficiency with which the related duties have been discharged, by no later than one year from the date of approval shown above, or earlier if significant changes to the systems and arrangements take place, or if legislation, regulatory requirements or best practise guidelines so require.
- 1.2. The local content of this document will be subject to continuous monitoring, refinement and audit by the Head of Service.

Signed:

John Ivers
Proprietor, Cambian Group

2. Terminology

2.1. Our aim is to use consistent terminology throughout this policy and all supporting documentation as follows:

'Establishment' or 'Location'	this is a generic term which means the Children's Home/school/college. The Forum School is a school and children's home
Individual	means any child or young person under the age of 18 or young adult between the ages of 18 and 25. At The Forum School we have children and young people attending and/or residing between the ages of 7 and 19 years
Service Head	This is the senior person with overall responsibility for the school and children's home. At The Forum School this is the Daniel Pitt (Principal) and Kerry Byron (Care Services Manager)
Key Worker	Members of staff that have special responsibility for Individuals residing at or attending the Establishment.
Parent, Carer, Guardian	means parent or person with Parental Responsibility
Regulatory Authority	Regulatory Authority is the generic term used in this policy to describe the independent regulatory body responsible for inspecting and regulating services. At The Forum School this is Ofsted
Social Worker	This means the worker allocated to the child/family. If there is no allocated worker, the Duty Social Worker or Team Manager is responsible.
Placing Authority	Placing Authority means the local authority/agency responsible for placing the child or commissioning the service
Staff	Means full or part-time employees of Cambian, agency workers, bank workers, contract workers and volunteers.

3. Introduction

- 3.1. This policy deals with the standards expected of Cambian Group employees in their professional relationship with individuals in our care, other employees and associates of The Cambian Group.
- 3.2. It applies to all staff in our locations as well as being engaged in offsite activities.
- 3.3. Make sure you are familiar with the detail and what is expected of you under this and all Cambian Policy's.
- 3.4. Failure to comply with this policy may lead to formal disciplinary action in line with our disciplinary process.

4. Purpose

- 4.1. To provide a list of statements that describe the standards of professional conduct and practice required for employees who are in direct contact with the Individuals in our Care. Whilst this document covers a number of key issues, it is not exhaustive and employees are expected to conduct themselves professionally and appropriately at all times and adhere to local guidelines and directives as well as those highlighted within this document.
- 4.2. To embody The Company's guiding principles and our commitment to compliance of legislation, regulatory requirements, other practice guidance and maintaining best practice for all individuals in our Care.
- 4.3. To protect individuals in our care by promoting best practice.
- 4.4. To give reassurance that staff are providing safe and compassionate care of a high standard, and the confidence to challenge others who are not, ensuring that nothing that staff do or omit to do, should harm the safety and wellbeing of Individuals in our Care.
- 4.5. To provide information to individuals outlining professional expectations of Cambian employees.
- 4.6. To strive to support Individuals in our Care with the least restrictive practice in line with positive behavioural support and The Mental Capacity Act 2005, Liberty Protection Safeguards (LPS), to ensure their self-determined rights as individuals. The act is designed to protect and empower those who may lack the capacity to make their own decisions about their care and treatment and applies to individuals aged 16 or over.
- 4.7. The Mental Capacity Act (2005) states that you should;
 - 4.7.1. Assume a person has capacity to make a decision themselves, unless it is proved otherwise;
 - 4.7.2. wherever possible, help people to make their own decisions;
 - 4.7.3. don't treat a person as lacking the capacity to make a decision just because they make an unwise decision;
 - 4.7.4. If you make a decision for someone who doesn't have the capacity, it must be in their best interests; and
 - 4.7.5. treatment and care provided to someone who lacks capacity should be the least restrictive of their basic rights and freedoms.

5. Policy

- 5.1. Employee's must be aware that it is their responsibility to comply with all legislative and regulatory requirements relative to their job role.
- 5.2. Cambian encourage employee's in all establishments to achieve and maintain the highest possible standards of care for Individuals in our care.
- 5.3. All employees shall be made aware of, and have access to the Code of Practice.
- 5.4. The guidance and details of the Code of Practice shall be covered in all induction programmes.
- 5.5. All Individuals in our care, carers, placing authorities and regulatory bodies shall be made aware of this Code of Practice and copies will be made available on request.
- 5.6. Reference has been made to;

The Code of Practice for Social Care Workers issued by the HCPC (Health and Care Professions Council);

The Code of Conduct for Healthcare Support Workers and Adult Social Care Workers in England issued by Skills for Care;

The Code of Practice for Social Care Workers issued by The Care Council for Wales.

The Codes of Practice for Social service Workers and Employers issued by The Scottish Social Services Council

- 5.7. At any time if the individual is not happy with the approach, process or employees/other individuals they have the opportunity to either complete a complaint leaflet which is available in all locations on display or follow the Cambian Complaints Procedure and/or use the Whistle Blowing procedure which is also on display in all locations. When individuals join the location, they are made aware of this and this is reiterated in individual local meetings. Sites must make sure that Individuals are provided with accessible resources to allow them to participate fully in the complaints process.
- 5.8. The NYAS Independent Visitor and Advocate are also further options provided by Cambian should the Individual want to pursue this.
- 5.9. Employees must notify their manager immediately, if they are notified that they are the subject of an investigation for, or have been found guilty of professional misconduct by a relevant professional body, or subject to any sanction.

6. Code of Practice for Social care workers (HCPC)

You should be accountable by making sure you can answer for your own actions and omissions.

6.1. Promote and protect the interests of service users and carers;

- 6.1.1. You must treat service users and carers as individuals, respecting their privacy and dignity.
- 6.1.2. You must work in partnership with service users and carers, involving them, where appropriate, in decisions about the care, treatment or other services to be provided.
- 6.1.3. You must encourage and help service users, where appropriate, to maintain their own health and well-being, and support them so they can make informed decisions.
- 6.1.4. You must make sure that you have consent from service users or other appropriate authority before you provide care, treatment or other services.
- 6.1.5. You must not discriminate against service users, carers or colleagues by allowing your personal views to affect your professional relationships or the care, treatment or other services that you provide.
- 6.1.6. You must challenge colleagues if you think that they have discriminated against, or are discriminating against, service users, carers and colleagues.
- 6.1.7. You must keep your relationships with service users and carers professional.

6.2. Communicate appropriately and effectively;

- 6.2.1. You must be polite and considerate.
- 6.2.2. You must listen to service users and carers and take account of their needs and wishes.
- 6.2.3. You must give service users and carers the information they want or need, in a way they can understand.
- 6.2.4. You must make sure that, where possible, arrangements are made to meet service users' and carers' language and communication needs.
- 6.2.5. You must work in partnership with colleagues, sharing your skills, knowledge and experience where appropriate, for the benefit of service users and carers.

6.2.6. You must share relevant information, where appropriate, with colleagues involved in the care, treatment or other services provided to a service user.

6.2.7. You must use all forms of communication appropriately and responsibly, including social media and networking websites.

6.3. Work within the limits of your knowledge and skills;

6.3.1. You must keep within your scope of practice by only practising in the areas you have appropriate knowledge, skills and experience for.

6.3.2. You must refer a service user to another practitioner if the care, treatment or other services they need are beyond your scope of practice.

6.3.3. You must keep your knowledge and skills up to date and relevant to your scope of practice through continuing professional development.

6.3.4. You must keep up to date with and follow the law, our guidance and other requirements relevant to your practice.

6.3.5. You must ask for feedback and use it to improve your practice.

6.4. Delegate appropriately;

6.4.1. You must only delegate work to someone who has the knowledge, skills and experience needed to carry it out safely and effectively.

6.4.2. You must continue to provide appropriate supervision and support to those you delegate work to.

6.5. Respect confidentiality;

6.5.1. You must treat information about service users as confidential.

6.5.2. You must only disclose information if:

- you have permission;
- the law allows this;
- it is in the service user's best interests; or
- it is in the public interest, such as if it is necessary to protect public safety or prevent harm to other people.

6.6. Manage risk;

6.6.1. You must take all reasonable steps to reduce the risk of harm to service users, carers and colleagues as far as possible.

6.6.2. You must not do anything, or allow someone else to do anything, which could put the health or safety of a service user, carer or colleague at unacceptable risk.

6.6.3. You must make changes to how you practise, or stop practising, if your physical or mental health may affect your performance or judgement, or put others at risk for any other reason.

6.7. Report concerns about safety;

6.7.1. You must report any concerns about the safety or well-being of service users promptly and appropriately.

6.7.2. You must support and encourage others to report concerns and not prevent anyone from raising concerns.

- 6.7.3. You must take appropriate action if you have concerns about the safety or well-being of children or vulnerable adults.
- 6.7.4. You must make sure that the safety and well-being of service users always comes before any professional or other loyalties.
- 6.7.5. You must follow up concerns you have reported and, if necessary, escalate them.
- 6.7.6. You must acknowledge and act on concerns raised to you, investigating, escalating or dealing with those concerns where it is appropriate for you to do so.

6.8. Be open when things go wrong;

- 6.8.1. You must be open and honest when something has gone wrong with the care, treatment or other services that you provide by:
 - informing service users only, or where appropriate, their carers, that something has gone wrong.;
 - apologising;
 - taking action to put matters right if possible;
 - Making sure that service users or, where appropriate, their carers receive a full and prompt explanation of what has happened and any likely effects.
- 6.8.2. You must support service users and carers who want to raise concerns about the care, treatment or other services they have received.
- 6.8.3. You must give a helpful and honest response to anyone who complains about the care, treatment or other services they have received.

6.9. Be honest and trustworthy;

- 6.9.1. You must make sure that your conduct justifies the public's trust and confidence in you and your profession.
- 6.9.2. You must be honest about your experience, qualifications and skills.
- 6.9.3. You must make sure that any promotional activities you are involved in are accurate and are not likely to mislead
- 6.9.4. You must declare issues that might create conflicts of interest and make sure that they do not influence your judgement.
- 6.9.5. You must tell us as soon as possible if:
 - you accept a caution from the police, or you have been charged with, or found guilty of a criminal offence.;
 - the law allows this;
 - it is in the service user's best interests; or
 - it is in the public interest, such as if it is necessary to protect public safety or prevent harm to other people.
- 6.9.6. You must cooperate with any investigation into your conduct, competence, the conduct or competence of others, or the care, treatment or other services provided to service users.

6.10. Keep records of your work.

- 6.10.1. You must keep full, clear, and accurate records for everyone you care for, treat, or provide other services to.
- 6.10.2. You must complete all records promptly and as soon as possible after providing care, treatment or other services.

6.10.3. You must keep records secure by protecting them from loss, damage or inappropriate access.

7. Code of Conduct for Healthcare support workers and Adult Social care workers.

7.1. Be accountable by making sure you can answer for your actions or omissions.

- 7.1.1. Be honest with yourself and others about what you can do, recognise your abilities and the limitations of your competence and only carry out or delegate those tasks agreed in your job description and for which you are competent.
- 7.1.2. Always behave and present yourself in a way that does not call into question your suitability to work in a health and social care environment.
- 7.1.3. Be able to justify and be accountable for your actions or your omissions – what you fail to do.
- 7.1.4. Always ask your Manager for guidance if you do not feel able or adequately prepared to carry out any aspect of your work, or if you are unsure how to effectively deliver a task.
- 7.1.5. Tell your Manager about any issues that might affect your ability to do your job competently and safely. If you do not feel competent to carry out an activity, you must report this.
- 7.1.6. Establish and maintain clear and appropriate professional boundaries in your relationships with people who use health and care services, carers and colleagues at all times.
- 7.1.7. Never accept any offers of loans, gifts, benefits or hospitality from anyone you are supporting or anyone close to them which may be seen to compromise your position.
- 7.1.8. Comply with the Company's agreed ways of working
- 7.1.9. Report any actions or omissions by yourself or colleagues that you feel may compromise the safety or care of people who use health and care services and, if necessary use whistleblowing procedures to report any suspected wrongdoing.

7.2. Promote and uphold the privacy, dignity, rights, health and wellbeing of people who use care services and their carers at all times.

- 7.2.1. Always act in the best interests of people who use health and care services.
- 7.2.2. Always treat people with respect and compassion.

Put the needs, goals and aspirations of people who use health and care services first, helping them to be in control and to choose the healthcare, care and support they receive.
- 7.2.3. Promote people's independence and ability to self-care, assisting those who use health and care services to exercise their rights and make informed choices.
- 7.2.4. Always gain valid consent before providing healthcare, care and support. You must also respect a person's right to refuse to receive healthcare, care and support if they are capable of doing so
- 7.2.5. Always maintain the privacy and dignity of people who use health and care services, their carers and others.
- 7.2.6. Be alert to any changes that could affect a person's needs or progress and report your observations in line with the Company's agreed ways of working.

- 7.2.7. Always make sure that your actions or omissions do not harm an individual's health or wellbeing. You must never abuse, neglect, harm or exploit those who use health and care services, their carers or your colleagues.
- 7.2.8. Challenge and report dangerous, abusive, discriminatory or exploitative behaviour or practice.
- 7.2.9. Always take comments and complaints seriously, respond to them in line with agreed ways of working and inform a senior member of staff.

7.3. Work in collaboration with your colleagues to ensure the delivery of high quality, safe and compassionate healthcare, care and support.

- 7.3.1. Understand and value your contribution and the vital part you play in your team.
- 7.3.2. Recognise and respect the roles and expertise of your colleagues both in the team and from other agencies and disciplines, and work in partnership with them.
- 7.3.3. Work openly and co-operatively with colleagues including those from other disciplines and agencies, and treat them with respect.
- 7.3.4. Work openly and co-operatively with people who use health and care services and their families or carers and treat them with respect.
- 7.3.5. Honour your work commitments, agreements and arrangements and be reliable, dependable and trustworthy.
- 7.3.6. Actively encourage the delivery of high-quality healthcare, care and support.

7.4. Communicate in an open and effective way to promote the health, safety and wellbeing of people who use health and care services and their carers.

- 7.4.1. Communicate respectfully with people who use health and care services and their carers in an open, accurate, effective, straightforward and confidential way.
- 7.4.2. Communicate effectively and consult with your colleagues as appropriate.
- 7.4.3. Always explain and discuss the care, support or procedure you intend to carry out with the person and only continue if they give valid consent.
- 7.4.4. Maintain clear and accurate records of the healthcare, care and support you provide. Immediately report to a senior member of staff any changes or concerns you have about a person's condition.
- 7.4.5. Recognise both the extent and the limits of your role, knowledge and competence when communicating with people who use health and care services, carers and colleagues.

7.5. Respect people's rights to confidentiality

- 7.5.1. Treat all information about people who use health and care services and their carers as confidential.
- 7.5.2. Only discuss or disclose information about people who use health and care services and their carers in accordance with legislation and agreed ways of working.
- 7.5.3. Always seek guidance from a senior member of staff regarding any information or issues that you are concerned about.

7.5.4. Always discuss issues of disclosure with a senior member of staff.

7.6. Strive to improve the quality of healthcare, care and support through continuing professional development.

- 7.6.1. Ensure up to date compliance with all statutory and mandatory training, in agreement with your Manager.
- 7.6.2. Participate in continuing professional development to achieve the competence required for your role.
- 7.6.3. Carry out competence-based training and education in line with your agreed ways of working.
- 7.6.4. Improve the quality and safety of the care you provide with the help of your Manager (and a mentor if available), and in line with your agreed ways of working.
- 7.6.5. Maintain an up-to-date record of your training and development.
- 7.6.6. Contribute to the learning and development of others as appropriate.

7.7. Uphold and promote equality, diversity and inclusion.

- 7.7.1. Respect the individuality and diversity of the people who use health and care services, their carers and your colleagues.
- 7.7.2. Do not discriminate or condone discrimination against people who use health and care services, their carers or your colleagues.

Promote equal opportunities and inclusion for the people who use health and care services and their carers.
- 7.7.3. Report any concerns regarding equality, diversity and inclusion to a senior member of staff as soon as possible.
