

Whinfell – Blackwell Sailing

This week the annual sailing activity started and a group of young people visited Blackwell sailing on Lake Windermere.

The Blackwell sailing club is run by volunteers who put in lots of hard work with the young people and help them learn the different skills. The young people also develop their personal skill such as listening, socialising, teamwork and resilience.

There is opportunity to work towards qualifications in sailing or the young people can attend for fun.

See below 2 young people who attended this week's session:
