SEND Information Report

1. What is our approach to teaching learners with SEN?

- As an independent school for young people with ongoing social, emotional and mental health issues, majority of pupils have a range of complex needs that impact on their education
- Our school has a clear approach to identifying and responding to SEN. We recognise the benefits of early identification and making effective provision in improving the long-term outcomes for the child or young person
- We want all adults and children to participate in learning and we celebrate all members of our community, creating an inclusive culture both within our school and beyond into our local community. This is vital to the creation of a holistic environment that encompasses all staff and students at Wisbech School
- All staff who work at Wisbech School are committed to working with children with complex medical and educational needs and provide high quality teaching for all learners and a rich educational environment in which everyone can learn together.
- Our school improvement and development plan emphasises developing learning for all and takes on board ideas and comments from our wider community to improve outcomes for our students.
- We monitor progress of all learners, and all teachers continually assess ensuring that learning is taking place. Our whole school system for monitoring progress includes regular pupil progress meetings.
- When your child comes to this school it is our role to ensure that develop skills that are essential to life, learning and work. We work on AEEEEA
- ACHEIVE
- EXCEL
- EMPOWER
- ENGAGE
- ASPIRE

2. How do we identify SEN?

“A child or young person has SEN if they have a learning difficulty or disability which calls for special educational provision to be made for them. A child of compulsory school age or a young person has a learning difficulty or disability if they: a) have a significantly greater difficulty in learning than the majority of others of the same age; or b) have a disability which prevents or hinders them from making use of educational facilities of a kind generally provided for others of the same age in mainstream schools or mainstream post-16 institutions.”
