

Year 7 and 8 Trip to Little Moreton Hall

This half term the year 7 and 8 pupils have been studying the history of the Anglo-Saxons and Tudors. On the 24th of September, we visited a National Trust property Called Little Moreton Hall. The students got to explore the three floors and experience what it would have been like to live within the Tudor era.

The children really enjoyed their day out and completed a short quiz as they explored the building at their leisure.

As well as them gaining a better understanding of the topics and enhancing their knowledge, they got to meet actors who re-enacted how people would have lived and activities that would been part of everyday life.

Little Moreton Hall was a truly fabulous day enjoyed by staff and students and we can't wait to experience more epic school trips within the Humanities department at Tyldesley school.
