Description of trip: It was lovely to be back together again after the Christmas holidays. We came to High Lodge at Thetford to go for a walk and play on the play park. Our teacher brought us some baked goods she had baked and a flask of blackcurrant to keep us warm. Our favourite part of the walk was crunching all of the frozen puddles. The sound was amazing. It was the winter equivalent to the crunching of leaves in the autumn. It was so cold though and we were glad to get back in the van to warm up. Some of us had a snooze on the way home after the fresh air. It was good to get back and we were running a little late, so walked straight through the kitchen to collect lunch, which was chicken curry and rice. What a lovely winter warmer. Full marks to the chef!

Quotes:

“I love the sound of the ice breaking”

“Anyone for hot blackcurrant?”

“It is soooo cold!”
