

This January, our college community is stepping up (and pedalling, and rowing!) to support the Epilepsy Society, pledging to cover 100 miles in just 31 days to raise vital funds for people living with epilepsy in our country.

We will be completing this challenge in our local gym, as part of our fitness programme.

