

Building Confidence: Green Class Develops Skills Through Hands-On Activities

Green Class has been working on their fine motor and independence skills, while sorting different coloured pompoms, cutting to make paper trees, and preparing their own snacks.

Both learners are engaging well with activities and are extending their 1:1 intensive Interaction time.

