

Green Class has been making wonderful use of the outdoor space to support both their physical development and regulation. Both boys have shown great determination and confidence when exploring new activities.

