

Animal Sessions at Dilston College

Two of our students out enjoying a walk with the alpacas around the site. These sessions are a wonderful opportunity for our students to build confidence, develop new skills, and connect with our lovely animals.

The alpacas definitely enjoyed the stroll too!

We're so proud of the hard work and care our students put into every session. Well done, both of you!