

Dilston College celebrated student voice week!

Our students have been busy sharing their thoughts and opinions to help shape what their education and care look like.

At Dilston, we believe in a person-centred approach, ensuring every student has the power to influence their own journey!

