

We have used our senses to celebrate Children's Mental Health week. We started with the Happy song, and we made a green sensory shaker, to represent feeling Happy and the Green Zone of Regulation.

We made a lavender scented bag to help us feel calm, and we made cards for our families, people who keep us safe, and to give the other children to so we can spread Happiness.

