

Exams Archiving Policy

Cambian Devon School

Exams Archiving Policy

Centre name	Cambian Devon School
Centre number	54381
Date policy first created	14/10/2024
Current policy approved by	Samantha Carrington
Current policy reviewed by	Samantha Carrington
Date of review	14/10/2024
Date of next review	14/10/2025

Key staff involved in the policy

Role	Name
Head of centre	Abbi Salisbury
Senior leader(s)	Claire Benjafield
Exams officer	Samantha Carrington
SENCo (or equivalent role)	Claire Benjafield
IT manager
Finance manager
Head(s) of department
Other staff (if applicable)

This policy is reviewed and updated annually to ensure that records are archived/retained in accordance with current requirements.

References in this policy to GR, ICE, SC and PRS refer to the JCQ documents General Regulations for Approved Centres, Instructions for conducting examinations, A guide to the special consideration process and Post-Results Services.

Purpose of the policy

The purpose of this policy is to:

- identify exams-related information/records held by the exams office
- identify the retention period
- determine the action required at the end of the retention period and the method of disposal
- inform or supplement the centre-wide records management policy/data retention policy

Where a particular record or information type is not held in, or not applicable to Cambian Devon School, this is indicated.

1. Access arrangements information

Record(s) description

Any hard copy information relating to an access arrangement is kept by the SENDCo.

Retention information/period

Records should be retained where there is a legal duty to keep them or to fulfil a business need and for as long as is necessary for the purpose which they were originally collected. The records should be archived and retained for at least the period set out in the table in Retention Schedule for the respective service area.

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

2. Alternative site arrangements

Record(s) description

Any hard copy information generated on an alternative site arrangement.

Retention information/period

Records should be retained where there is a legal duty to keep them or to fulfil a business need and for as long as is necessary for the purpose which they were originally collected. The records should be archived and retained for at least the period set out in the table in Retention Schedule for the respective service area.

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

3. Attendance register copies

Record(s) description

Attendance registers.

Retention information/period

Records are kept in accordance with the requirements of ICE, sections 12, 22 (...keep signed records of the seating plan, the invigilation arrangements and the centre's copies of the attendance registers for each examination. The awarding bodies may need to refer to these records. The centre must keep them until the deadline for reviews of marking has passed or until any appeal, malpractice or other results enquiry has been completed, whichever is later. Records should be retained where there is a legal duty to keep them or to fulfil a business need and for as long as is necessary for the purpose which they were originally collected. The records should be archived and retained for at least the period set out in the table in Retention Schedule for the respective service area.

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

4. Awarding body exams administration information

Record(s) description

Any hard copy publications provided by awarding bodies.

Retention information/period

Records retained until the current academic year update is provided.

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

5. Candidates' scriptsRecord(s) description

Any unwanted copies of scripts returned to the centre through the Access to Scripts (ATS) service.

Retention information/period

To be retained securely until the awarding body's earliest date for confidential disposal of unwanted scripts in accordance with the requirements of GR, section 3.15 (ensure that when scripts that have been returned under access to scripts arrangements are no longer required, they are disposed of in a confidential manner, but no earlier than the dates specified by the awarding bodies)

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

6. Candidates' workRecord(s) description

Non-examination assessment work returned to the centre by the awarding body at the end of the moderation period.

Retention information/period

Records logged on return to the centre and immediately returned to subject staff as records owner. To be stored safely and securely along with work that did not form part of the moderation sample (including materials stored electronically) in accordance with the requirements of GR, section 3.15 (store safely and securely all non-examination assessments, including controlled assessments, coursework or portfolios, retained in, or returned to, the centre until the deadline for a review of moderation has passed or until a review of moderation, an appeal or a malpractice investigation has been completed, whichever is later. This includes materials stored electronically).

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

7. Centre consortium arrangements for centre assessed workRecord(s) description

Any hard copy information generated or relating to consortium arrangements for centre assessed work. Applications submitted online via CAP. Add Not applicable if this record type is not applicable to the centre.

Retention information/period

Where specific retention information is not provided by JCQ or other authorised organisation, it is suggested as good practice that exams-related information that is held in the centre is retained at the very least until after the deadline for reviews of results or other results enquiries (or the resolution of any outstanding reviews/appeals or malpractice investigations) for the relevant exams series).

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

8. Certificates

Record(s) description

Candidate certificates issued by awarding bodies.

Retention information/period

Records retained in accordance with the requirements of GR, section 5.14 (retain all unclaimed certificates under secure conditions for a minimum of 12 months from the date of issue).

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

9. Certificate destruction information

Record(s) description

A record of unclaimed certificates that have been destroyed.

Retention information/period

Records retained in accordance with the requirements of GR, section 5.14 (destroy any unclaimed certificates after retaining them for a minimum of 12 months. They must be destroyed in a confidential manner. Centres that do not have a means of destroying certificates confidentially may return them to the respective awarding body. A record of certificates that have been destroyed should be retained for four years from their date of destruction. However, candidates should be informed that some awarding bodies do not offer a replacement certificate service. In such circumstances the awarding body will issue a Certifying Statement of Results. (Where an awarding body issues a replacement certificate, or a Certifying Statement of Results, this will provide an accurate and complete record of results for all qualifications covered by the original certificate return any certificates requested by the awarding bodies. Certificates always remain the property of the awarding bodies.).

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

10. Certificate issue information

Record(s) description

A record of certificates that have been issued.

Retention information/period

Records retained in accordance with the requirements of GR, section 5.14 (obtain and maintain accurate candidate contact information to ensure the correct and secure despatch of certificates - distribute certificates to all candidates without delay and regardless of any disputes (such as non-payment of fees). Certificates must not be withheld without prior permission from an awarding body which will only be given in very exceptional circumstances. A record should be kept of the certificates that are issued).

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

11. Confidential materials: initial point of delivery logs

Record(s) description

Logs recording awarding body confidential exam materials received by an authorised member of staff at the initial point of delivery.

Retention information/period

Where specific retention information is not provided by JCQ or other authorised organisation, it is suggested as good practice that exams-related information that is held in the centre is retained at the very least until after the deadline for reviews of results or other results enquiries (or the resolution of any outstanding reviews/appeals or malpractice investigations) for the relevant exams series).

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

12. Confidential materials: receipt, secure movement, checking and secure storage logs

Record(s) description

Logs recording the secure movement of awarding body confidential exam materials packages by an authorised member of staff to the secure room for transferal to the centre's secure storage facility. (Including for example, the handling of confidential MFL Listening materials)

Retention information/period

Where specific retention information is not provided by JCQ or other authorised organisation, it is suggested as good practice that exams-related information that is held in the centre is retained at the very least until after the deadline for reviews of results or other results enquiries (or the resolution of any outstanding reviews/appeals or malpractice investigations) for the relevant exams series).

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

13. Conflicts of interest records

Record(s) description

Records demonstrating the management of conflicts of interest

Retention information/period

Where specific retention information is not provided by JCQ or other authorised organisation, it is suggested as good practice that exams-related information that is held in the centre is retained at the very least until after the deadline for reviews of results or other results enquiries (or the resolution of any outstanding reviews/appeals or malpractice investigations) for the relevant exams series).

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

14. Dispatch logs

Record(s) description

Proof of dispatch of exam script packages to awarding body examiners covered by the DfE (Standards & Testing Agency) yellow label service (England only).

Retention information/period

Where specific retention information is not provided by JCQ or other authorised organisation, it is suggested as good practice that exams-related information that is held in the centre is retained at the very least until after the deadline for reviews of results or other results enquiries (or the resolution of any outstanding reviews/appeals or malpractice investigations) for the relevant exams series).

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

15. Entry information

Record(s) description

Any hard copy information relating to candidates' entries.

Retention information/period

Where specific retention information is not provided by JCQ or other authorised organisation, it is suggested as good practice that exams-related information that is held in the centre is retained at the very least until after the deadline for reviews of results or other results enquiries (or the resolution of any outstanding reviews/appeals or malpractice investigations) for the relevant exams series).

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

16. Exam question papers

Record(s) description

Question papers for all exams.

Retention information/period

Records retained in accordance with the requirements of ICE 31 (Releasing question papers) and GR, 6.13 (...For confidentiality purposes question papers must not be released to centre personnel for use in accordance with paragraph 6.12 until after the awarding body's published finishing time for the examination or, in the case of a timetable variation, until all candidates within the centre have completed the examination. This does not restrict access to question papers by authorised centre personnel for the purpose of conducting examinations).

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

17. Exam room checklists

Record(s) description

Checklists confirming exam room conditions and invigilation arrangements for each exam session.

Retention information/period

Where specific retention information is not provided by JCQ or other authorised organisation, it is suggested as good practice that exams-related information that is held in the centre is retained at the very least until after the deadline for reviews of results or other results enquiries (or the resolution of any outstanding reviews/appeals or malpractice investigations) for the relevant exams series).

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

18. Exam room incident logs

Record(s) description

Logs recording any incidents or irregularities in exam rooms for each exam session.

Retention information/period

Where specific retention information is not provided by JCQ or other authorised organisation, it is suggested as good practice that exams-related information that is held in the centre is retained at the very least until after the deadline for reviews of results or other results enquiries (or the resolution of any outstanding reviews/appeals or malpractice investigations) for the relevant exams series).

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

19. Exam stationery

Record(s) description

Awarding body exam stationery provided solely for the purpose of external exams.

Retention information/period

Records retained in accordance with the requirements of ICE, section 30 (return unused stationery to the secure storage facility or secure room until needed for a future examination. Surplus stationery must not be used for internal school tests, mock examinations and non-examination assessments, destroy confidentially any out-of-date stationery.).

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

20. Examiner reports

Record(s) description

Any reports or information regarding an examiner report.

Retention information/period

Where specific retention information is not provided by JCQ or other authorised organisation, it is suggested as good practice that exams-related information that is held in the centre is retained at the very least until after the deadline for reviews of results or other results enquiries (or the resolution of any outstanding reviews/appeals or malpractice investigations) for the relevant exams series).

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

21. Finance information

Record(s) description

Records returned to Finance department as records are kept until the end of the academic year.

Retention information/period

Records returned to Finance department as records owner at the end of the academic year.

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

22. Handling secure electronic materials logs

Record(s) description

Logs recording the arrangements applied when handling secure electronic materials provided to the centre and accessed by the exams officer (or other authorised member of centre staff).

Retention information/period

Where specific retention information is not provided by JCQ or other authorised organisation, it is suggested as good practice that exams-related information that is held in the centre is retained at the very least until after the deadline for reviews of results or other results enquiries (or the resolution of any outstanding reviews/appeals or malpractice investigations) for the relevant exams series).

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

23. Invigilation arrangements

Record(s) description

Checklists confirming exam room conditions and invigilation arrangements for each exam session.

Retention information/period

Where specific retention information is not provided by JCQ or other authorised organisation, it is suggested as good practice that exams-related information that is held in the centre is retained at the very least until after the deadline for reviews of results or other results enquiries (or the resolution of any outstanding reviews/appeals or malpractice investigations) for the relevant exams series).

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

24. Invigilator and facilitator training records

Record(s) description

Training Certificates and a log of what training was received.

Retention information/period

Records retained in accordance with the requirements of ICE, section 12 (A record of the content of the training given to invigilators and those facilitating an access arrangement for a candidate under examination conditions must be available for inspection and retained on file until the deadline for reviews of marking has passed or until any appeal, malpractice or other results enquiry has been completed, whichever is later. A record of the content of the training given to invigilators and those facilitating an access arrangement for a candidate under examination conditions must be available for inspection and retained on file until the deadline for reviews of marking has passed or until any appeal, malpractice or other results enquiry has been completed, whichever is later.).

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

25. Moderator reports

Record(s) description

Moderator Reports to provide feedback on coursework and exam performance to candidates.

Retention information/period

(Where printed from electronic copy) Records immediately provided to head of department as records owner.

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

26. Moderation return logs

Record(s) description

Logs recording the return of candidates' work to the centre by the awarding body at the end of the moderation period.

Retention information/period

Where specific retention information is not provided by JCQ or other authorised organisation, it is suggested as good practice that exams-related information that is held in the centre is retained at the very least until after the deadline for reviews of results or other results enquiries (or the resolution of any outstanding reviews/appeals or malpractice investigations) for the relevant exams series).

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

27. Overnight supervision information

Record(s) description

The JCQ Overnight Supervision form is completed online using CAP. The JCQ Overnight Supervision Declaration form is downloaded from CAP for signing by the candidate, the supervisor and the head of centre.

Retention information/period

Records retained in accordance with the requirements of ICE, section 8 (keep all completed forms available for inspection until the deadline for reviews of marking has passed or until any appeal, malpractice or other results enquiry has been completed, whichever is later. Forms may be stored electronically or in hard copy paper format and must not be sent to an awarding body, unless specifically requested).

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

28. Post-results services: confirmation of candidate consent information

Record(s) description

Hard copy or email record of required candidate consent.

Retention information/period

Records retained in accordance with the requirements of PRS, section 4 plus appendix A and B (Consent forms or emails from candidates must be retained by the centre and kept for at least six months following the outcome of the clerical re-check or review of marking or any subsequent appeal. The awarding bodies reserve the right to inspect such documentation. This form should be retained on the centre's files for at least six months following the outcome of the clerical re-check, review of marking or any subsequent appeal. This form should be retained on the centre's files for at least six months.).

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

29. Post-results services: request/outcome information

Record(s) description

Any hard copy information relating to a post-results service request (RoRs, appeals, ATS) submitted to an awarding body for a candidate and outcome information from the awarding body.

Retention information/period

Where specific retention information is not provided by JCQ or other authorised organisation, it is suggested as good practice that exams-related information that is held in the centre is retained at the very least until after the deadline for reviews of results or other results enquiries (or the resolution of any outstanding reviews/appeals or malpractice investigations) for the relevant exams series).

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

30. Post-results services: tracking logs

Record(s) description

Logs tracking to resolution all post-results service requests submitted to awarding bodies.

Retention information/period

Where specific retention information is not provided by JCQ or other authorised organisation, it is suggested as good practice that exams-related information that is held in the centre is retained at the very least until after the deadline for reviews of results or other results enquiries (or the resolution of any outstanding reviews/appeals or malpractice investigations) for the relevant exams series).

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

31. Private candidate information

Record(s) description

Any hard copy information relating to private candidates' entries.

Retention information/period

Where specific retention information is not provided by JCQ or other authorised organisation, it is suggested as good practice that exams-related information that is held in the centre is retained at the very least until after the deadline for reviews of results or other results enquiries (or the resolution of any outstanding reviews/appeals or malpractice investigations) for the relevant exams series).

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

32. Proof of postage - candidates' work

Record(s) description

Proof of postage/dispatch of candidates' scripts to awarding body examiners/markers. Proof of postage/dispatch of sample of candidates' work submitted to awarding body moderators.

Retention information/period

Records (proof of postage/dispatch of candidates' scripts to awarding body examiners/markers) retained in accordance with the requirements of ICE, section 29 (Centres not involved in the secure despatch of exam scripts service must obtain proof of postage/despatch for each packet of scripts, which must be retained on the centre's files until the results are published, in case of loss or damage. (Proof of postage will provide evidence that the candidates' scripts have left the centre. This will indicate that the scripts were written at the appointed time and that, should the scripts not be received by the awarding body/examiner, then special consideration may be possible.)

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

33. Resilience arrangements: Evidence of candidate performance

Record(s) description

The collection of evidence of student performance to ensure resilience in the qualifications system.

Retention information/period

Ofqual provides the following information: Retention of the work - Student work, either the original or a copy, must always be retained by the centre. Student work can be retained digitally or physically. Students may be given copies, or the original work, where this would support their study.

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

34. Resolving timetable clashes

Record(s) description

Any hard copy information relating to the resolution of a candidate's clash of timetabled exam papers.

Retention information/period

Where specific retention information is not provided by JCQ or other authorised organisation, it is suggested as good practice that exams-related information that is held in the centre is retained at the very least until after the deadline for reviews of results or other results enquiries (or the resolution of any outstanding reviews/appeals or malpractice investigations) for the relevant exams series).

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

35. Results information

Record(s) description

Broadsheets of public examination results summarising candidate final grades by subject by exam series.

Retention information/period

Records for current year plus previous 6 years retained as a minimum.

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

36. Seating plans

Record(s) description

Plans showing the seating arrangements of all candidates for every exam taken.

Retention information/period

Records retained in accordance with the requirements of ICE, section 12 (keep signed records of the seating plan, the invigilation arrangements and the centre's copies of the attendance registers for each examination. The awarding bodies may need to refer to these records. The centre must keep them until the deadline for reviews of marking has passed or until any appeal, malpractice or other results enquiry has been completed, whichever is later.).

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

37. Second pair of eyes check records/forms

Record(s) description

Records of the check that must take place by a second person (additional to the person removing question paper packets from secure storage) immediately before a question paper packet is opened.

Retention information/period

Where specific retention information is not provided by JCQ or other authorised organisation, it is suggested as good practice that exams-related information that is held in the centre is retained at the very least until after the deadline for reviews of results or other results enquiries (or the resolution of any outstanding reviews/appeals or malpractice investigations) for the relevant exams series).

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

38. Special consideration information

Record(s) description

Any hard copy information relating to a special consideration application which has been submitted to an awarding body for a candidate and appropriate evidence signed by a senior leader.

Retention information/period

Records retained in accordance with the requirements of SC, section 6 (All applications must be supported by appropriate evidence signed by a member of the senior leadership team. The centre must retain this evidence until after the publication of results. As centre may be asked by an awarding body to provide signed evidence.

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

39. Suspected malpractice reports/outcomes

Record(s) description

Any hard copy information relating to a suspected or actual malpractice investigation/report submitted to an awarding body and outcome information from the awarding body.

Retention information/period

Where specific retention information is not provided by JCQ or other authorised organisation, it is suggested as good practice that exams-related information that is held in the centre is retained at the very least until after the deadline for reviews of results or other results enquiries (or the resolution of any outstanding reviews/appeals or malpractice investigations) for the relevant exams series).

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

40. Transferred candidate arrangements

Record(s) description

Any hard copy information relating to a transferred candidate arrangement. Applications submitted online via CAP.

Retention information/period

Where specific retention information is not provided by JCQ or other authorised organisation, it is suggested as good practice that exams-related information that is held in the centre is retained at the very least until after the deadline for reviews of results or other results enquiries (or the resolution of any outstanding reviews/appeals or malpractice investigations) for the relevant exams series).

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

41. Very late arrival reports/outcomesRecord(s) description

Any hard copy information relating to a candidate arriving very late to an exam. Reports submitted online via CAP.

Retention information/period

Where specific retention information is not provided by JCQ or other authorised organisation, it is suggested as good practice that exams-related information that is held in the centre is retained at the very least until after the deadline for reviews of results or other results enquiries (or the resolution of any outstanding reviews/appeals or malpractice investigations) for the relevant exams series).

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

42a. Any other records/documentation/materialsRecord(s) description

Any other records/documents/materials not yet mentioned within this policy.

Retention information/period

Where specific retention information is not provided by JCQ or other authorised organisation, it is suggested as good practice that exams-related information that is held in the centre is retained at the very least until after the deadline for reviews of results or other results enquiries (or the resolution of any outstanding reviews/appeals or malpractice investigations) for the relevant exams series).

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

42b. Any other records/documentation/materialsRecord(s) description

Any other records/documents/materials not yet mentioned within this policy.

Retention information/period

Where specific retention information is not provided by JCQ or other authorised organisation, it is suggested as good practice that exams-related information that is held in the centre is retained at the very least until after the deadline for reviews of results or other results enquiries (or the resolution of any outstanding reviews/appeals or malpractice investigations) for the relevant exams series).

Action at the end of retention period (method of disposal)

Records can then be destroyed once they reach the end of the respective retention period. The method of destruction should match the sensitivity of personal data being destroyed. Electronic records should also be deleted from systems however where this is not technically possible, they should be 'put beyond use'.

Changes 2025/2026

(Added) Record type - 25. Malpractice reports and outcomes (Updated 27/07/2025 to remove this record type as it is a duplication of record type 39)

(Changed) Slight wording changes made in JCQ reference prompts to reflect wording changes in relevant JCQ documents

Centre-specific changes

Samantha Carrington as new Exams Officer and Abbi Walters is now Abbi Salisbury.