

Ribble class have explored different fruit that can be harvested. We explored the fruit through our different senses, we thought the fruit was slimy and cold! The pupils could recognise most of the fruit by smell alone and enjoyed using their sense of smell to guess the fruit.

