

Outcomes:

- To Explore and learn.
- Behave well in public.
- To enjoy the Tulips for Tapping House display.
- To use the inspiration of the Tulips to write an acrostic poem about the Tulips.

Description of trip: What better way to sum up our trip – A poem about our day!

The Tulips of Tapping House are the best. They are all of the colours of the rainbow and more. There are pinks and purples, blues and yellows and red like rubies.

Unfortunately, Tulips, like humans come to the end of their days. They wilt in the midday sun and go to seed. Living well, dying well, never alone.

Life is fragile and so are Tulips. Life is precious and we should be grateful for the days we have and the people in them as well as the beautiful sights we see.

I love all of the colours of the Tulip field. But my favourite are the orange Tulips, which signify warmth, happiness and energy.

Perfect, pretty, pleasing, peaceful Tulip field. You were a delight to see!

Quotes:

“They are so pretty!”

“My favourite are the pink tulips”

“Can we come back here again next year”
