Description of trip: We returned to Terrington Saint Clement again to find more paths, trails and quiet lanes that we were yet to explore. We planned this route to pass by the church as our topic in Religious Studies is what is a church? We marvelled at the well-kept cemetery and enjoyed walking through the grounds. It was picturesque. To the side there was a paddock with several horses grazing on the land. Just as we made it past the church, the heavens opened and the rain was rather heavy. We stood under a tree to take shelter, until it stopped. One minute it was cold and showery, then next it was hot and humid. We lost count of the number of times our teacher took her jacket off and then put it back on again. Just as we arrived back at the car, a ginger tomcat came over for a stroke. That was our favourite part of the walk. Another great walk, enjoyed by all and a total mileage of 4.6 miles.

Quotes:

"I love cats!"

"Let's stand under the tree"

"What a well-kept cemetery"
