WORK EXPERIENCE

- One student was able to produce artistic pieces to channel his creative flair and give him practical experience.
- One student was able to trial bricklaying ahead of his desired college placement.

PERSONAL ACHIEVEMENTS

- LL made friends and spoke in public to familiar and unfamiliar adults. He was able to slowly befriend and acknowledge "safe" adults and students to speak briefly too, before coming to express himself fully by the end of the year.
- LGM completed a full week of education. LGM started school after being out of education, and throughout the year slowly increased his attendance until able to achieve a full week in school.
- GM overcame anxieties in favour of new experiences. GM came to explore and cherish new experiences with the school, overcoming agoraphobia to enjoy the outside.
- JJ made friends and formed strong relationships with "safe" adults. Despite fears and previous isolation, JJ was able to form strong close bonds with a range of staff and students.
- SH learnt to talk openly about his emotions with trusted adults. SH worked with The Lowdown and staff in order to become more open and understand his emotions more thoroughly.
- SK was able to complete education in a home setting with the Outreach programme. She worked with Maths and English teachers in a relaxed home environment to achieve her qualifications.
- SMM performed music in a public setting. SMM continued his love of guitar, drums and keyboard and was able to play them in a public setting at the Performing Rooms.
